The KEY Factor To Your MLM Success

To be really successful in online MLM, there are 2 types of knowledge you need to master :

1. MLM /Network Marketing
2. Internet Marketing

The common factor between the two is MARKETING. Your marketing system is an important key to drive results for your business.

Internet marketing provides you with the avenue to earn instant retail cash from the growing 1.2 billion internet users, while network marketing gives you recurring income from your downlines.

In short, in internet marketing, you market to the general online consumers. In MLM, you market to your downlines.

The MLM game plan strategy is crafted based on the above understanding as well as the following three facts about online MLM business:

- 1) *Nobody is interested in you or your MLM opportunity
- 2) *It is easier to make $97 selling a "How To" digital product then getting paid $10 for recruiting a downline
- 3) *9 out of your 10 downlines will quit in 3 months or less

If you are new to the MLM industry or have been involved in MLM the 'traditional' way, it may be shocking for you to hear the above. Sad to say, they are the truths and you were probably not told the truth by your uplines.

The Game Plan

1. Position yourself to offer what people want : Get people to come looking for you instead of you chasing after the leads
2. Sell everything but your MLM opportunity : Earn instant retail cash in the front end and long term residual income at the back end
3. Stop sponsoring front lines : Build depth until you find a leader who can duplicate you

Please refer to the table in the next page for the different phases of the game plan, the various systems and tools will be elaborated later :

Phase 1 : Lead Generation

More than 140 million people from the United States shopped online in 2007, this figure is predicted to increase to 150 million in 2008.

What are these people buying?

Nielsen Online reported the following top 10 online retail categories in Oct 2007.

Top 10 Online Retail Categories by Order Size - October 2007

Who are your target market in this game plan?

1. People who need the product/services offered by your MLM business. For example if you are promoting USANA, you can target at those who are looking to lose weight.
2. People who are looking for a home business – stay at home moms, retirees, retrenched workers, etc
3. People who are already in an MLM business – what do these people need?
  - Traffic
  - Prospecting and recruitment strategies
  - Training systems

How to reach these people?

In order to offer people what they want, you or your sales page need to be at the place where they go to find solution. There are 3 main methods to market in order to achieve maximum exposure :

1. Viral marketing
2. Search Marketing
3. Paid Advertising

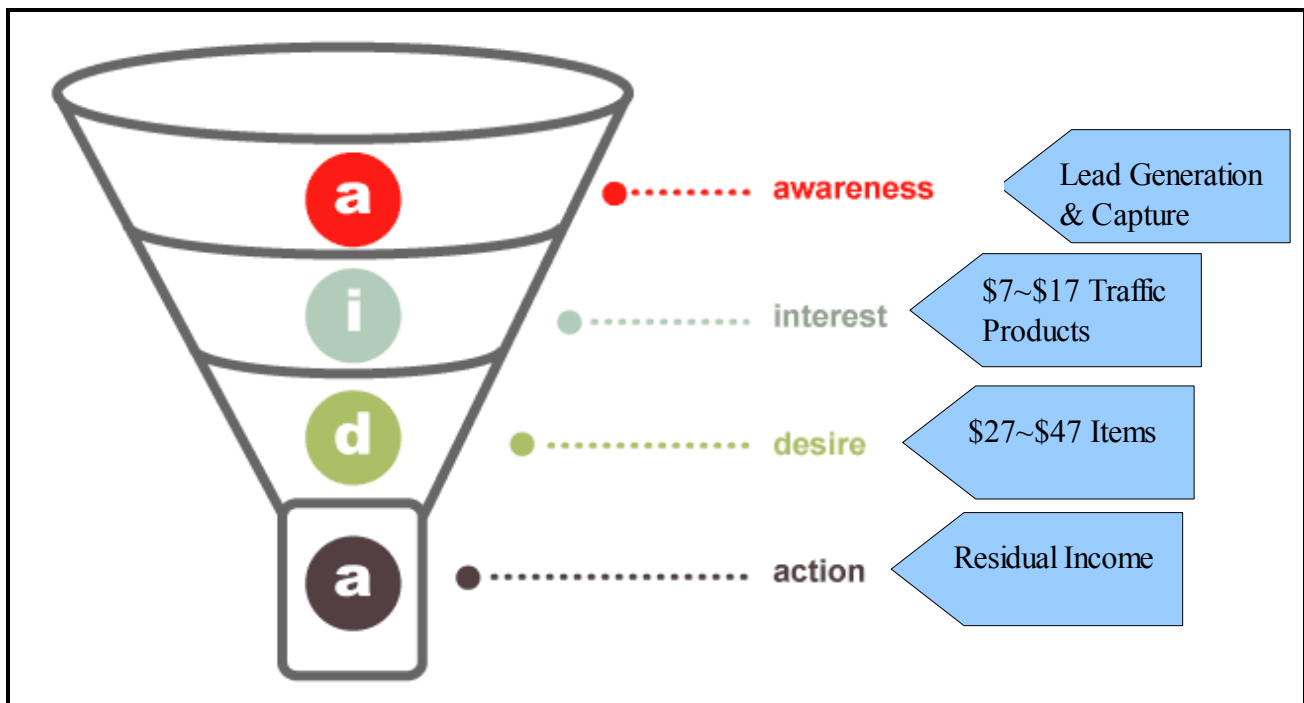

In phase 1, you will integrate the 3 methods to capture your target market :

Phase 2 : Profit Funnel

The lead generation process is designed to create mass awareness about the product and services that you are offering. Bear in mind that until this point you are still not promoting your MLM opportunity, instead you are offering solutions to gain trust as well to pique the interests of your prospects.

As they progress through the sales funnel (below), various call to action sales points are integrated. You will then be able to get paid at multiple stages even before the prospect hears about your MLM opportunity.

If you use the Dream Team Formula system, the profit funnel is setup for you. You can quickly make use of the multiple turnkey websites and landing pages (attached with your paypal button) to get paid instant retail cash. No more waiting for end of the month or even minimum payouts.

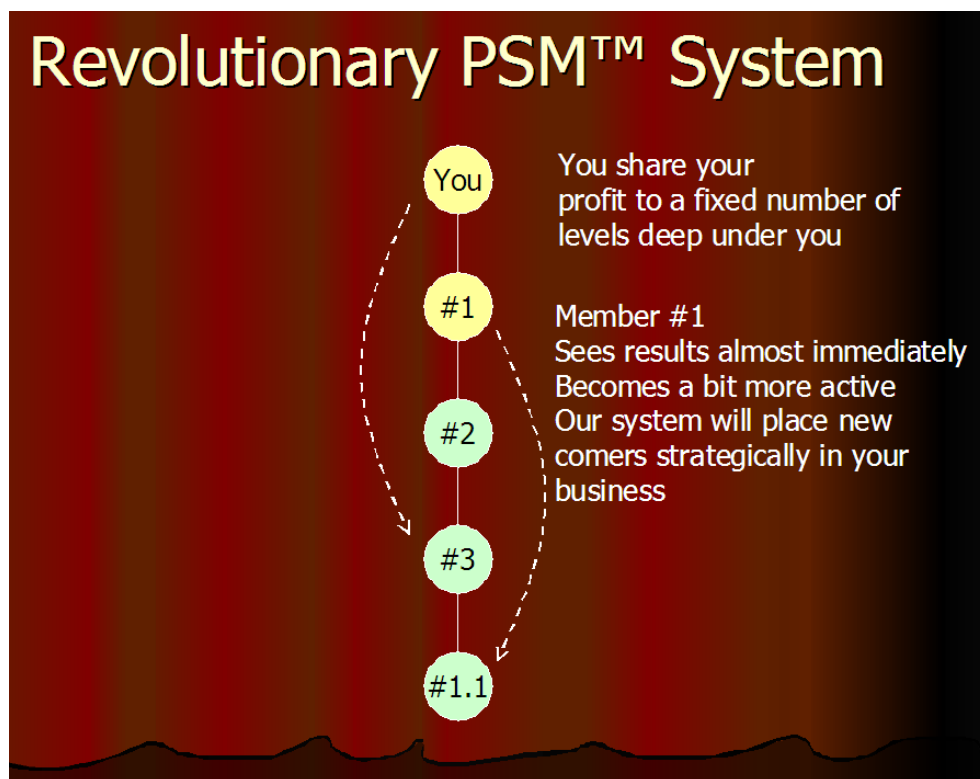

See an example of page that you will receive :

Phase 3 : Downline Retention

By this phase, you would have already made some instant retail cash and have a list of prospects at different stages of the profit funnel. They should all be automatically included in your autoresponder system and receiving regular emails from you. There is now very high chance that your leads will “persuade” themselves to join your business.

The longer they are in the profit funnel, the more valuable information they will receive from your email follow-ups. So the outcome is predictable. Once the prospect sold him/herself to join your MLM business, the Dream Team Formula (DTF) system automatically takes over. DTF intelligently positions them in a vertical power line so that the combined effort of everyone is leveraged.

The system ensures long term downline retention and residual income so that you don't have to re-build your MLM team again.
